

NIGHT EDITION.

ROOSEVELT'S TEETH SNAP.

To-Morrow Will Be Drier than Any Sunday on Record, It Is Predicted.

WILL HIRE CITIZEN SPIES.

And Saloon-Keepers Will Be Afraid to Trust Their Dearest Friends.

GROSSE'S LETTER A BITTER PILL.

Special Attention to Be Given to the Twelfth and Ninth Precincts.

President Roosevelt does not seem inclined to talk so much about excise enforcement as he has in the past.

What he said this morning was short and to the point. He made no bones in saying it, and his eyes snapped and the famous teeth came together tightly as he said:

"Every one knows the position of the Police Board now, so they can be depended on to know what sort of a day it will be to-morrow, so far as saloon-closing is concerned."

The letter of Revenue Collector Edward Grosse is a bitter pill for the Police Board to swallow.

The commission, which first came to light at a meeting of the Police Board yesterday, drew from the Commissioners the first exhibition of real temper since the present board was born.

This is the letter which caused the uproar among the Commissioners:

"I have further to report that the presence of many prostitutes in a limited number of saloons in the city is a constant menace to the existence of decent houses in or near the same, and that the citizens have a right to expect their suppression by the Police Department."

The information that the police captains will generally hire citizens to procure evidence against saloon-keepers to-morrow, thus emulating the example of Capt. Joseph Westervelt, of the East One Hundred and Fourth street station, who made eighteen arrests last Sunday by this means, has caused increased uneasiness among the saloon fraternity.

The saloon-keepers say they do not know exactly who to trust, hence they must proceed with extreme caution. Of course, more hardship than yet experienced will result, and a drier Sunday, it is indicated, than ever before.

To help this along, it is known that the United Police League, and the citizen stool-pigeons will go to the saloons with an eye for an eye.

Particular attention will be paid the Twelfth Precinct, commanded by Capt. Schultz. Last Sunday the hour of the saloons open in Schultz's precinct, and there are a large number of them to look after.

It is further said that upon Sunday's effort on the part of Capt. Schultz will depend whether the city will be preferred to him or not.

The Ninth Precinct, the station-house of which is on Broadway and commanded by Capt. Delaney, will be the center of another effort to make a strong fight to shut up every saloon.

It will be a dry as a bone to-morrow.

This was the remark made by Acting-Chief of Police Conlin this morning when he was asked how the Excise Law would be enforced in the city.

Queens County, to the hotels, saloon-keepers and others who do business at the Beach on Sunday, that they must not sell liquor or beer to-morrow. At first it was supposed that Sheriff Doherty was not in earnest, but when word came from the Sheriff's office that the law would be strictly enforced to-morrow, the hotel men called a conference to take what they deemed suitable action. Accordingly a committee of hotel men, composed of D. J. Folio, C. A. Wadsworth, and G. W. Smith, went to Long Island City at noon to see Sheriff Doherty and try to induce him to rescind or at least modify the order.

There will undoubtedly be trouble if Sheriff Doherty would not close the saloons. Not a few of the hotel men and saloon-keepers started today that they would not close, and some of them seemed to think that the whole thing was a bluff on the part of the Sheriff. A large force of deputy Sheriffs are expected to come to the Beach on an early train to-morrow morning, and will receive the support of Capt. De Mott, who was appointed by the Sheriff.

HAD A POLICY OUTFIT.

But as No Slips Were Sold the Prisoner Escaped.

Detective Frank Rohrer, of the West Thirty-seventh Street Station, was passing 522 West Twenty-seventh street at 4:30 yesterday afternoon, and noticed that the door was ajar. It had been reported to the police that a policy shop was being operated there. Rohrer entered the hallway, and there encountered a young man named William J. Downing, of 226 Tenth avenue. Downing tried to shut a door leading to a room off the hall when he saw the detective, but he was not quick enough, and Rohrer succeeded in pushing his way into the apartment. There he found a complete policy outfit—slips, stamps, supplement sheets and other evidences of the game. He arrested Downing, who protested that he was not the proprietor, but was merely watching the place for a little while. It was not until he was taken to the Jefferson Market Court this morning, that he had sold slips to the prisoner. There was nothing to show that Downing had sold slips to the prisoner. He was discharged.

MAY LOSE ITS LICENSE.

Mr. Harburger is in Doubt About Madison Square Garden.

Commissioner Harburger to-day decided not to sign the renewal of the saloon license for Madison Square Garden until he had consulted with the new council to the Excise Board, Julius M. Mayer. As the new council does not begin work until Monday afternoon, it will probably be Tuesday before the license will be signed.

Harburger's reason is that he is undecided whether the Board has power to grant a license to a place where sporting exhibitions are given every year. Whether Mayor Strong has expressed any wish with regard to this license is not known. The council, which is headed by Secretary John Heiges, spent an hour and three-quarters with Commissioner Harburger and Harburger, after which he was concerned that they had been discussing the granting of excise licenses where the Mayor had granted concert and theatrical licenses.

MUST ANSWER TO PERJURY.

Roundsmen Taylor's Patrolmen Accusers Must Answer.

Roundsmen John S. Taylor, of the East Eighty-eighth street station, preferred charges against Patrolmen Isaac Milhauser and Patrick Smith, of the same station, at Police Headquarters this afternoon.

Formal complaints charging perjury will be drawn up Monday.

There is a bitter feeling between Roundsmen Taylor and many of the patrolmen of the Twenty-seventh Precinct, the latter at least to a man claiming that Taylor has repeatedly made false complaints against them, until it has become absolute persecution.

The Commissioner ordered Milhauser and Smith to appear at Police Headquarters this afternoon.

Patrolman Smith corroborated Milhauser and seemed to have made a good case against Taylor, but Col. Grant, to the astonishment of all, ordered Taylor to prefer charges of perjury against both Milhauser and Smith for falsifying the trial record.

TO HAVE WARD MEN AGAIN?

Police Board Contemplates That and a Roundsmen Shake-Up.

It was stated from a reliable source at Police Headquarters to-day that the Commissioner intended to restore the system of having ward men in the various station-houses.

Since the abolition of the position of ward men crime has increased and more evils have crept into the city. Patrolmen, it was said, have all they can attend to when they do their patrol duty, and cannot spare time to anything else. The thieves know this, and know they are comparatively safe from detection when there are no ward men to watch them.

MASSACRE STORY A FAKE.

Government Agent Thus Wipes the Indian Bureau at Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The Indian Bureau has received a dispatch from Agent Teter, saying that there is absolutely no truth in the report of a massacre of the Jackson's Hole settlers.

BOISE, Idaho, July 27.—The Statesman at midnight last night received a message from a reliable man at Market Lake, Idaho, which says:

"Pay no attention to wild reports about Indians in Jackson's Hole. Everything is quiet at present."

THE WORLD'S WEEKLY FEAST.

It Will Be Even a Little Better To-Morrow Than It Has Been on Other Sundays.

You ought to read the Sunday World to-morrow because:

It is admitted by all the other Sunday newspapers that it is absolutely true to them. A few of the weaker sisters try to copy it, but the majority throw up their hands and hope that a few crumbs will fall to them from the Sunday World's great circulation feast.

You ought to have some affection for the King of Sunday. He's a marvel. What do you suppose he does in hot weather? He sinks a glass palace to the bottom of a cold lake, takes down plenty of dancing girls and refreshing beverages with him and moons away the hot hours very comfortably. Read about this head-butt in the intelligent King in the Sunday World.

You will read in the Sunday World a story about devil-worshippers, which, to put it mildly, is exciting. If you have ever read anything like it, let us know. One feature of the worship is the murder of a young girl, with details that Comstock would not tolerate in this happy land.

If you are an unfortunate and have trolley cars mixed up in your life, read carefully the "Don'ts" for trolley passengers in the Sunday World. There is some very beautiful advice in those "Don'ts." "Don't ride on a trolley if you can help it."

The Sunday World's story, truthful, accurate and temperate, of the horrors of the Cocopah Desert, will stir any heart and reconcile any man to a New York State desert, and there they leave the cold and their lives. Read about it. It is a chance for a brave, fireproof man to make his fortune, but it is no place for the poor man or his Sunday beer.

The very clever story of the single tax is worth study. We sincerely advise the call and honorable John Jacob Astor, who is as full of unearned increment as an egg is of meat, to read the Sunday World's story of the single tax descent upon Delaware. The single tax orators are at work there, in uniform and with campaign songs. They are making a most energetic and noisy show business of it. Then, J. J. A.

If you want to be able to convince your friends that the talk of enforcing all obsolete laws, no matter how dead, is nonsense, read the Sunday World's article on dead laws. Do you know what is against law in New York? It is the law against the single tax. It was passed in 1897, and it is still in force. The penalty is $100 for the first offense and $200 for the second. It is a law that has never been enforced, and it is a law that makes a good deal of money by raising the cost of doing business. It is a law that is a nuisance to the business community. It is a law that is a burden to the people. It is a law that is a waste of money. It is a law that is a hindrance to progress. It is a law that is a disgrace to the state. It is a law that is a shame to the nation. It is a law that is a blot on the honor of the people. It is a law that is a stain on the reputation of the state. It is a law that is a disgrace to the nation. It is a law that is a shame to the people. It is a law that is a blot on the honor of the state. It is a law that is a stain on the reputation of the nation. It is a law that is a disgrace to the people. It is a law that is a shame to the state. It is a law that is a blot on the honor of the nation. It is a law that is a stain on the reputation of the people. It is a law that is a disgrace to the state. It is a law that is a shame to the nation. It is a law that is a blot on the honor of the people. It is a law that is a stain on the reputation of the state. It is a law that is a disgrace to the nation. It is a law that is a shame to the people.
